First Reconciliation and First Holy Communion

Parent Preparation Agreement

I will actively participate in my child's preparation for these Sacraments, specifically:

- I will help with my child's religious education assignments and sacramental preparation at home.
- I will bring my child to Religious Education class each week on time and for the entire class period.
- If my child is absent more than three times without a reasonable excuse, the reception of the Sacraments may be delayed. Three tardies is equivalent to one absence.
- Home school parent; I will ensure my child will complete 100 percent of the homeschool curriculum by May 1st.
- I affirm that my child's Faith formation takes precedence over extracurricular activities, including sports.
- I will take my child to Mass every Sunday and all Holy Days of Obligation.
- I will attend all mandatory parent meetings. If I cannot make a meeting due to serious circumstances (e.g., family emergency, sickness, wedding, funeral, etc.), it is my responsibility to notify the Religious Education Office as soon as feasible and schedule a meeting in person.
- I will ensure my child's attendance to the First Reconciliation Retreat.
- I will ensure my child's attendance to First Reconciliation, which must be received before First Holy Communion.
- I will ensure my child's attendance to the "How to receive the Eucharist" class with Deacon Reyda at the church.
- I will ensure my child's full participation in the First Holy Communion Practice.
- I understand that missing the practice may postpone my child's reception of First HolyCommunion.

Failure to complete the above requirements may delay my child's reception of these Sacramentsfor this school year. However, the Sacraments will be administered later when my child and I can complete them.
